Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

Thank you to all representatives for your support throughout 2018.

We have had a brilliant year, working in partnership with all of you. It is the time of the year which we get to reflect and celebrate on the success we have had in 2018. And look forward to what is to come in 2019. We would love to work further with all of you in strengthening the relationship between all Amber education partners.

Please get in touch with marketing@amberedu.co.uk to schedule a visit or for an opportunity for one of our members of staff at the Amber Education London team to come visit.

We are also happy to announce that all our students for guardianship had received very promising reports this term, of which the guardians and parents are very proud of. Amber guardians hope that the students have a great relaxing holiday and come back with refreshed minds to start their second term. We look forward to hearing all about the holidays.

Amber Trips

Kings Education Brighton

Thank you, Kings Education Brighton colleges, for showing Tiffany around the school. It was a fantastic experience and Tiffany fully enjoyed exploring the lovely facilities, classrooms, private studio rooms and student kitchens as well. Above all it was very useful to have the accommodations right above the classrooms, presenting the most convenient school setting. The classes are 10-15 students, sometimes smaller in order to focus on individual students focussed based learning. After meeting with the head of academic, Nigel Benier. It was clear that the infrastructure upon which the school academics was built was from the heart and the love of teaching from all teachers at the school. The teachers and school are very focussed on getting the students to achieve their best from their academics to their social, leadership skills as well. Which is a brilliant opportunity to adapt students to societal norms of today's workforce. The school offers GCSE, A- levels, catered 2-week half term English programmes and foundation programmes for university. It is overall a well thought out, student catered experience which they are providing for international students and UK citizens as well. All in the

It is the season to give to others and reflect on yourself, it is important at this time of the year to remember those who have helped us and those of whom we can still lend a hand to before the year ends.

From the whole Amber Education London office, we all wish you a wonderful Christmas and a Happy new year.
